We created this Privacy Policy to demonstrate our firm commitment to your privacy and the protection of your information. The purpose of this Privacy Policy is to inform you about the types of information we might collect about you when you visit our Site, how we may use that information, whether we disclose it to anyone, and the choices you have regarding our use of, and your ability to correct that information. By using our Site, you acknowledge acceptance of this Privacy Policy in effect at that time of your use.

What Information We Collect and How We Use It

Any information we collect on our Site generally falls into the following two categories: Personally Identifiable Information and Aggregate Information. Personally Identifiable Information refers to information that lets us know specifically who you are. In general, you can visit our Site without telling us who you are or revealing any Personally Identifiable Information. You may however, voluntarily provide Personally Identifiable Information such as contact information including telephone number, email address, physical/mailling address; financial information including billing address, credit card, debit card, and/or bank account numbers. In such event, we might maintain a record of your contact information in a file specific to you, including such Personally Identifiable Information. We use this information to provide better service in the event you contact us again. We may share, trade, rent, license, and/or sell this information to third parties that we believe offer products and services consistent with our products and services. If you voluntarily provide us with Personally Identifiable Information, you consent to our sales, trade, rent, license, use, and storage of the information. Additionally, we may obtain supplemental Personally Identifiable Information from third parties, such as your driver license, credit card statement, and/or utility bills to verify your Personally Identifiable Information. You likewise consent to these practices. This supplemental Personally Identifiable Information will be stored in our files and may be shared and/or traded with and/or rented, licensed, and/or sold to third parties. Aggregate Information refers to information that does not by itself identify you as a specific individual. Such information would include the Uniform Resource Locator (URL) or the Web site that referred you to our Site, your Internet Protocol (IP) address (a number automatically assigned to your computer whenever you surf the Web), your operating system, browser type, and any search terms that you enter on our Site. Our Web server aggregates this information in order to monitor the level of activity on our Site, evaluate its effectiveness, and improve the content of our Site in order to make your visit an easy and enjoyable experience. We may collect, compile, store, publish, promote, report, or otherwise disclose, or use any Aggregate Information, provided that such information does not personally identify you. We do not correlate any Personally Identifiable Information with the Aggregate Information that we collect on our Site. If we do correlate any Aggregate Information to you, it will be protected like any other Personally Identifiable Information under this Privacy Policy.

We may be required to provide Personally Identifiable Information in response to court order, subpoena, or government investigation. We also reserve the right to report to law enforcement agencies any activities that we in good faith believe to be unlawful. WholeMana, or its, if any, related entities could merge with or be acquired by another business entity, or their respective assets could be acquired.
